

Wolgast Is Offered Purse To Fight Tommy Murphy, At Frisco, On Feb. 22

McFarland's First Fight Was With Nurse

Aspirant for Lightweight Championship Started in Red Young as a Scrapper; Has Accumulated $200,000 as Result of Many Battles.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 7.—Packer McFarland, aspirant for the lightweight pugilistic championship, was born Nov. 1, 1888. At the age of two weeks and one day he caught his nurse a severe right hook under the jaw because she attempted to separate him from his milk bottle. When five weeks old he rushed from the house at the sight of a negro who was raking leaves in the front yard of his home and beat the African over the head with his own rake.

These incidents convinced McFarland's parents that they had a coming champion in their midst, and Packer was put into training, his crib being fitted out with a punching bag and pulley weights.

Realizing that one of the greatest needs of a fight champion was the ability to write challenges to other champions, McFarland was sent as soon as he arrived at the proper age to St. Ann's parochial school, where he devoted himself to reading, writing and arithmetic.

Worked in Boiler Factory.
At an early age McFarland was placed in a boiler factory, where the boilers being a deep black, would cause him to wonder why the sledge hammer, Packer loved his work and beat three boilers out of the ring and hammered another one into insensibility before the whistle blew at the end of the first day.

There was an African boy aged 15 summers, employed in the boiler shop, but the manager of the establishment, knowing young McFarland's aversion to persons of brunet complexion, thought to avert trouble by keeping the African child employed on the roof while Packer beat up boilers in the cellar, however, soon after the whistle blew the signal for the commencement of labor on the second day, McFarland suddenly dropped the hammer with which he was punning a boiler in the basement and hastened instinctively to the roof.

The young African and the youthful McFarland fought a battle on the roof and down four flights of stairs before the factory workmen could lasso them and drag them apart. McFarland began fighting the young African the next day even before the whistle blew, and the boss of the shop decided that if he wanted to manufacture boilers he would have to dispose with both the child African and young McFarland, which he did and they did.

McFarland had met with so much difficulty in reducing the negro to an unrecognizable pulp that he knotted up the Park Manor Athletic club and went into hard training, doing terrible execution to a punching bag while the second round like a Kansas cyclone and not only forced his rival through the ropes but chased him out of the barn and 10 blocks down the street.

Got $3 for First Fight.
McFarland's first fight for a commercial consideration was with a young man named Pete West. West had the best of the first round, and it looked as if McFarland's pugilistic career was to end as soon as it had begun. In the interval between rounds, however, one of the attendants in McFarland's corner whispered to Packer that his opponent was none other than Booker T. Washington with his face whitewashed.

Accordingly McFarland sailed out in the second round like a Kansas cyclone and not only forced his rival through the ropes but chased him out of the barn and 10 blocks down the street.

He received a purse of $3 for this victory and took $1.50 home to his mother, donating the balance of the purse to a man who said he was raising a fund to put dynamite under a corner of Africa and blow it off the world.

Parental opposition to the career selected by young McFarland became so strenuous that he fled from home and sought a refuge with relatives in Davenport, where he passed a few delightful years fighting the African roundabouts on Mississippi river steamers.

Has Accumulated $200,000.
McFarland since those days has fought many battles and accumulated something like $200,000. He is a great fighter, especially of Charles Dickens, who is his favorite novelist.

McFarland is so good looking that when he went to New York, a few days ago a gush writer described him in large black headlines as "A Curly Haired Apollo." McFarland immediately had his lovely raven locks shaved off with a razor, and paid a beauty doctor a large price to put two artificial wigs on his nose, so that his charms would not again be commented upon in the public press and subject him to the attention of female fans.

McFarland does not drink, swear, smoke or gamble, and screams loudly when he is hit by a lovely woman attempts to flirt with him.

AMATEURS ARE READY TO PLAY BALL AGAIN
Greensboro Issue Challenge Which Is Quickly Accepted by the Rusties—Grade Teams Play on Vacant Lots.

Amateur baseball in El Paso will have an early opening this season, according to the numerous minor baseball fans who are trying out in every vacant lot in the city. The Grammar school students are working hard in preparation for their summer games.

Several teams have been organized in different portions of the city. The Rusties, a south side aggregation, have issued a challenge to any team in the city for a game to be played on any future date. The Rusties, a baseball club of lower town fame, have taken up the challenge of the Greensboro and say that the match will be played off next Sunday afternoon.

Another game scheduled between the Reds and Bakers, will also be played on Sunday, Feb. 9. Following are the players of the Greensboro team: J. E. Yelton, C. Aronson, A. Wilson, R. Aronson, Gibson, J. Kildis, Richards, J. M. Lewis, manager and matchmaker of the club.

MOORE AND WHITE MAY NOT FIGHT AT KENOSHA
Kenosha, Wis., Feb. 7.—Nobody knows whether the Pal Moore-Charlie White boxing contest will be held here next Monday.

Mayor Head told the promoters that they might proceed with the fight, but that he would cause the arrest of all the principals, managers, seconds and the referee at the close of the show. With that ultimatum the promoters said it was unlikely the bout would be held.

The mayor also suggested that the promoters might draw up a petition asking the city council to permit the bout. If the aldermen are willing that the fight should proceed, the mayor will withdraw all objections.

NEW RECORDS MADE FOR FIVE MILE RUN AND SHOT PUT
New York, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Hannes Kolehmainen, of Finland, the Olympic distance champion, started from scratch in a five mile handicap at the indoor games of the Irish-American A. C. in Madison Square Garden last night, made an American indoor record for the distance as well as new records for the 3-1/2 miles and 4-1/2 miles. Kolehmainen, in 17 minutes for the five miles was 24 minutes, 48 seconds, 11 2-5 seconds better than the record made by George Bonham in 1908.

A new world's record of 25 feet in putting the 56 pound shot, with follow, was made by Patrick Ryan, of the Irish-American A. C. The former record, 22 feet, 11 inches, was made by William Reel at Boston, October 4, 1888.

A special 1000 yard run was won by Abel Kiviat in 3:17 2-5. Melvin W. Sheppard was second.

Even At Wedding, Nelson Remembers Wolgast

Menu Card for Feast Labeled a Dessert "Camembert Cheese a la Wolgast"—Gossip About the Prize Fighters.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 7.—The fine menu card that Battling Nelson flashed on the boys that attended him when he tossed away his thirty. And to think on that supposed joyful occasion he remembered his conqueror thus: "Camembert cheese a la Wolgast."

Rough stuff, Battling Nelson King. Packer Hommey is worrying kinds of wondering when he will get a chance to mingle with Patsy Kline in the ring. That adds to Packer's sorrow is that he is now hitting the high spots and fighting like a whirlwind.

"Beats time fighta Pat Kline," says Hommey in some noise in Philadelphia. George Lurich, who came all the way from St. Petersburg to show what a real fighter he was, wants to take a chance with Zbyzko, the Polish star. Lurich will get the opportunity, as Zbyzko will meet him in Chicago within a few days and look the situation over. They all look alike to "Biscuits."

A Little Sport; A Little Gossip
FRANK CHANCE has given up all hope of ever securing the services of Joe Berger, star Pacific Coast league shortstop for the Highlanders. Berger was tried out last year by the Chicago White Sox and manager Gallagher says that while he would like to accommodate Chance he does not feel like letting Berger go.

The winner of the Chico-Chaves 10 round bout at Albuquerque on Feb. 22, has been received permission to go along. McGraw's second detachment, composed entirely of veterans, will reach Marlin Springs on March 1.

Red Sox infield recruits are drawing to determine which one shall beat Jake Stahl out of the first base job. Cy Morgan threatens to quit Kansas City. Cy could have made quaker delicious with joy by such an announcement last spring. Connie had to tell him not to slam the gate on the way out.

Joe Birmingham says Chance is a tender. He is a tender, but he thinks he will succeed, but don't see how he can finish much above eighth with a legacy of cripples. All of which reminds one of the fellow who cheered along, McGraw's second detachment, composed entirely of veterans, will reach Marlin Springs on March 1.

No less a personage than president-elect Wilson will see Frank Chance make his debut as the Yankee chief. Wilson will see Chance in a game in Washington. President Wilson is expected to make his first appearance at a ball game as the national executive on that day.

HOUCK HAS LEAD OVER SUKERMAN
Bowlers Are Rolling 20 Game Match for Championship of City—Sukerman Holds High Game.

Old rivals met last night on the Wigwam alleys when Houck was retired the winner over Sukerman in the first round of a scheduled in a 20 day series to be rolled for the championship of the city by a margin of 50 pins. Sukerman started with a rush and rolled pins ahead in the first half of the match, but Houck came from behind and, aided by numerous splits, was soon enabled to gain a steady and stantial lead over his opponent.

The second half of the match will be rolled off at the Casino alleys Saturday night. Sukerman was credited with high game, making a run of 204 in the fourth game. Sukerman's match, Evans and D. Bowman led in the scoring for the Y. M. C. A., Evans throwing 15 and D. Bowman, 14 baskets. Following are the lineups.

Y. M. C. A.—Evans and D. Bowman, forwards; C. Bowman, center; Thomas and Dene, guards.
High school—Masters and Wood, forwards; Hill, center; Schumacker and Race, guards; Walker, substitute.

CHICAGO MAYOR OPPOSES ZBYZKO-LEIGH MATCH
Chicago, Ill.—Mayor Harrison put the ban of official disapproval on a proposed wrestling match between Stanislaus Zbyzko and George Leigh, the Russian wrestler, in a letter to chief of police McWeeny, in which he referred to the match as a "disgrace to the city." The match was to be held at White Sox park in 1911.

The mayor's letter was to the effect that Lurich is, or has been, under the management of persons connected with the Labor day swindle of 1911. Promoters already have seen me and have been informed that the match cannot be pulled off. Certainly no permit should ever be issued to any of the crowd that galled the public in the Gatch-Hackenschmidt dance of 1911.

RHODE ISLAND GOVERNOR PUTS BAN ON BOXING
Providence, R. I., Feb. 7.—Because a recent bout culminated in a fight between the referee and one of the seconds, governor Pothier said he had issued a decree that no boxing exhibitions in Rhode Island, as they are "a disgrace to civilization."

Adolph Wolgast says that the nip of brandy he took in his fight with Ritchie lost him the title. Battling Keefe says that's better than getting nothing. Smart boy, that Battler, when it comes down to that reparty chatter.

WOLGAST MAY BE MATCHED TO FIGHT TOMMY MURPHY
San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 7.—An offer of $5000, win, lose or draw, was telegraphed to Ad Wolgast by a local promoter, who is trying to arrange a match here for February 22 between the Michigan lightweight and Tommy Murphy, of New York. Murphy had been matched for that date for a 20 round fight with Joe Mandot, of New Orleans, but owing to sickness Mandot was forced to cancel the engagement.

Wolgast has demanded a guarantee of $10,000. The promoter telegraphed Murphy, who is at Chicago, not to start for California until definite arrangements had been made with the Cadillac fighter.

None of them have been able to come to terms with president Navin as to salary. The local papers have charged that the four players have agreed among themselves that none will sign unless the salary demands of all are met by the Detroit club.

Although the signed contract of catcher Rondeau, a recruit, has been received, the club still is without a regular catcher signed up.

Basketball Quintet Rolls Up Score of 104 While High School Scores 60.

Score, 104 to 58. This was the way it ended in the favor of the Y. M. C. A. quintet against the High school team, which was defeated in a game played at the Y. M. C. C. A. The association men played their game fast and easily increased their score with well thrown baskets.

The smaller High school players being unable to stop the fast swelling score, Kiburn, Robertson and Mee, three star players of the High school five, were abandoned from the game. Evans and D. ## Nolan After Big Purse For Ritchie

Manager of Lightweight Champion Thinks Match Between Title Holder and Joe Rivers on July 4 Would Draw Record Crowd.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 7.—Bully Nolan, collector of big purses, is of the avowed opinion that his world's lightweight champion, Willie Ritchie, known in private life as Garry Steffen, will draw down the largest purse ever given a fighter when he clashes with Joe Rivers in a title combat in Los Angeles or San Francisco, July 4.

This same Mr. Nolan, California ranchman, is the man who induced the promoters of the fight between Joe Gans and Battling Nelson in Goldfield, Nev. Sept. 3, 1905, to give Nelson the sum of $24,500 for his end. That is the largest sum of money ever paid to a lightweight for one battle. But Nolan is not satisfied with that record. He wants to break it and is going to it he has his way about it.

"This is the way it stands," said the boss of Ritchie, "Say Francisco and Los Angeles, which means pugilistically speaking, Jimmy Coffroth and Tom McCarey, are bidding for a Ritchie Rivers fight for July 4. Of course we could fight before that time, but are going to fill our theatrical engagements first. Rivers is the big card in Southern California, where they think he is the best ever and Ritchie is the card in northern California, where they believe he is the world's greatest lightweight, and more popular than the average champion because he is a French boy. Therefore Coffroth and McCarey are going to do some mighty tail bidding to get this battle. We are willing to fight for either man, but will accept the largest offer we receive. From what I know at this early date I believe I am safe in saying that Ritchie will receive for his end of the purse more money than Nelson received in Goldfield."

"Of course, I believe Ritchie will win the fight. Rivers is a good lightweight, having beaten some top-notchers, but Ritchie is better in many respects and we have no thought of losing the championship for a long time to come. Of course, any champion in meeting top-notchers is taking his life."

COMPANY G HAS A CLEVER FIGHTER
Herman Folwell, company G, 22d infantry, defeated "Kid" Gaydash, the Cleveland wonder, in a fast and interesting bout at the Stanton street bridge Monday evening.

Although the fight was both fast and interesting, Folwell seemed to have a shade the better of it and he showed both judgment and cleverness, blocking some hard blows and using his clever foot work to good advantage.

Folwell would like to meet any young fighter in the city as 135 pounds and to make it a little more interesting, a small side bet can be had.

The company G boys are training in the useful art of self defense and they expect to turn out some pretty good youngsters in the course of a very few weeks.
